A LEADER!

SUCH IS THE
Cincinnati Enquirer
IN THE NEWSPAPER WORLD.

An indispensable adjunct to the man of business, the financier, manufacturer, producer, tradesman, farmer and laborer.

All need certain facts and knowledge of affairs that pertain to each ones calling in life.

More especially, now, during the great onward march our country is making towards wealth and power, science and literature, mechanism and products of the soil.

The wide-awake gathers dollars where lagards earn cents. The enterprising newspaper that brings knowledge of the world's doings is the main prop and capital of the money-maker.
Without the aid of a paper, like the ENQUIRER, one becomes the victim of his more enterprising neighbor. The information the ENQUIRER brings you for a few cents costs thousands of dollars to obtain. You need the ENQUIRER, and we want your patronage because deserving of it. The DAILY ENQUIRER is the best all around newspaper in the United States. The WEEKLY ENQUIRER ranks as one of the ablest weekly journals in the land, and serves the average town and country masses faithfully in a reliable and profitable manner at $1.00 a year, while the daily issue at $14.00 a year, is worth that sum every day to the business man. See our agent or postmaster, or remit direct to

POPE'S LIFE ENDING.

Physicians Entertain But Little Hope of His Recovery.

Official Bulletins Given Out Are Very Contradictory in Their Nature—It is Thought the Doctors Mis-judged the Disease.

Rome, July 8.—The marvelous vitality and recuperative energy of the pope was never so forcibly demonstrated as by the series of events preceding, accompanying and following Tuesday's operation.

Pope Leo remained sitting up in bed during the whole time of the operation without need of support. When Dr. Mazzoni substituted the pravaz needle with a potain aspirator, the pope did not even notice it, going through the whole affair without emitting the slightest lament and without showing any feeling of pain.

Rome, July 9.—The life of Pope Leo continues to hang by a thread with the expectation that any moment may bring the end. Yet the wonderful vitality of the remarkable old man is combating a complication of diseases which would endanger a strong man in the prime of life. It appears that every one in the vatican is obliged to give way to overpowering fatigue, so much more tranquil is it in the palace than outside, people still congregating on the piazza of St. Peters. The corner of the palace which remained lighted the longest was the apartment of Cardinal Rampolla, where the lights were extinguished only a short time after those in the room where Mgr.
Volpini, one of the pontiff's most intimate friends, is lying in a serious condition as a result of the attack of syncope that he suffered Wednesday.
Pope Leo, as though he had second sight, has asked several times why Mgr. Volpini had not been to see him.
Naturally, the condition of Mgr. Vol-pini has been kept from the pope.

Throughout Wednesday the reports from the sick room alternated with fears and hopes. At times rumors of the gravest character gained currency.
During the night the pope had secured little refreshing sleep and with this sleeplessness was augmented depression. The difficulty in breathing had increased and a derangement of the kidneys began to manifest itself.
These complications were fully and frankly stated by the doctors. Their official bulletin was supplemented in the course of personal conversation in which they showed that they entertained scarcely any hopes of recovery.
Yet they always qualified their statements setting forth the remarkable constitutional strength and energy of the patient as the most striking evidence of his almost superhuman will.
They instanced the dying man's leaving his bed during the morning and taking several steps, unaided save by a cane, to an arm chair. When this became known many were disposed to criticise the doctors for permitting such an exhausting effort, but it was explained that the entire absence of fever, the temperature being even below normal, eliminated the danger of syncope from this exertion. Moreover the attending physicians recognized that they were battling with a man of iron will who does not know the meaning of restraint.

Fortunately all the climatic conditions in Rome for the time being are favorable to the sufferer. The air is deliciously cool and there is complete absence of the enervating sirocco, which depresses and kills. The bright sunshine streams into the papal apartment. The encouraging conditions are further augmented by the constant use of artificial means of exhilaration, including steady supplies of oxygen.
The later official bulletin following a consultation between Drs. Laponi and Mazzoni, completely contradicted the alarmist reports and gave a most favorable statement. This was disclosed in the improved pulse, better respiration and ameliorated general condition. Dr. Mazzoni said in a conversation following the issuance of the 8:15 p. m. bulletin that while the pope's condition still continued desperate, recovery was not entirely impossible. Unfortunately some elements in the population of Rome, including a few who are high in the councils of the vatican, are inclined to cast doubt on the sincerity of the bulletins. This led during the day to a strong movement in favor of calling other physicians. The theory of the initiators of this movement was that Drs. Laponi and Mazzoni had mis-judged the disease, taking for pneumonia what was really pleurisy. Both accepted the idea of a consultation with any of their colleagues. Many eminent specialists have been proposed, but it was said late in the night that it had practically been determined that Dr. Rossini should be called if another consultation was decided on.
However, Dr. Mazzoni said that in his opinion there was no immediate need of a consultation and that one would not be called if another consultation was decided on. However, Dr. Mazzoni said that in his opinion there was no immediate need unless the present conditions changed.

The Battleship Indiana.
New York, July 7.—It was said at the Brooklyn navy yard that the battleship Indiana is in such condition that when it is placed out of commission its machinery will have to be overhauled at a heavy cost to the government.

Japan Mobilizing Her Forces.
London, July 7.—According to Tientsin correspondent the opinion prevails in Russian circles here that the outbreak of hostilities in the far east is inevitable. It is reported that the Japanese are mobilizing their forces.

THE New York World
Thrice-a-Week Edition.
Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken.

The Thrice-a-Week World was a brilliant success in the beginning and has steadily grown ever since. Time is test of all things, and has set its seal of approval on the Thrice-a-Week World, which is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and wherever there are people who can read our mother tongue.

This paper for the coming winter and the year 1903, will make its news service, if possible, more extensive than ever.
All events of importance, no matter where they happen, are reported accurately and promptly.

The subscriber for only one dollar a year, gets three papers every week and more general reading than most great dailies can furnish at five or six times the price.

The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in its political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political campaigns.

In addition to all the news, the Thricea-Week World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market report and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE BOURBON NEWS together one year for $2.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.
